

Please do not approve use of cell phones on commercial aircraft. I am a frequent flyer; I use a cell phone on land; but an aircraft is my last remaining refuge from disturbing cell users' chatter. I also believe the flight attendants are correct in being concerned about this usage.